Position Description 2018
Acadia Youth Technology Team Intern
Bar Harbor, Maine
Posted 1/19/2018
(1-3 positions available)

Friends of Acadia is accepting applications for up to three Acadia Youth Technology Team (AYTT) Intern positions for the 2018 summer season. The AYTT is a group of one coordinator and three college students who assist Acadia National Park (ANP) with implementing technology and projects that improve the park's visitor experience and engage the next generation of park stewards. The AYTT team is based at ANP Headquarters on Eagle Lake Road on Mount Desert Island. The team is managed by the Coordinator and an ANP Ranger, with additional supervision by Friends of Acadia. The AYTT team will engage in work projects, present their work to the National Park Service and members of the public, and write reports documenting their progress. Work projects may include a continuation of work from previous teams and/or new initiatives. This summer's projects include:

- 1.) Taking high quality and engaging photo stills and producing high quality storytelling videos for the park website and social media channels;
- 2.) Producing live streaming videos for social media sites such as Facebook Live;
- 3.) Managing the Digital Media Interpretive Kit at the popular Peregrine Falcon Watch;
- 4.) May deliver interpretive programs to the public on topics such as "iPhone Photography in Acadia";
- 5.) May assist with the piloting of an informational microsite, a pilot project that shares site-specific digital content with visitors via remote WiFi technology.

These projects will highlight park resources, programs, history, visitor experiences, and Leave No Trace principles. The Coordinator's expertise lies with the technical aspects of implementing these projects, as well as the organization of day-to-day tasks for the team.
