Summit Steward 2019 Position Description

Acadia National Park, Bar Harbor, Maine

3-8 positions available

Application Period: 12/27/2018 – 2/25/2019

Friends of Acadia is accepting Summit Steward applicants for the field season. The Summit Stewards are an interdisciplinary team that works with all divisions of Acadia National Park to improve the visitor experience, while also reducing visitor impact in the park. Summit Stewards rove the trails of Acadia promoting Leave No Trace stewardship, interpreting the natural and cultural resources, and performing trail maintenance to encourage use of official trails. Summit Stewards spend 3 days per week on trails and summits throughout the park and 2 days per week on Cadillac Mountain’s trails and summit.

Interpretation and Education- 40% of work duties

1. Works well and communicates effectively with members of the Summit Stewards team, Friends of Acadia (FOA) and Acadia National Park (ANP) staff, and park visitors while assisting with all assigned job duties.
2. Hikes selected trails in Acadia while educating and assisting visitors through informal interpretation: teaches Leave No Trace principles; offers trail guidance, first aid, water, maps, and information about FOA and ANP; shares the cultural and natural history of ANP.

Trails Maintenance- 25% of work duties

3. Builds rock cairns and destroys misleading cairns and rock art (REQUIRES HEAVY LIFTING). Performs small-scale routine trail maintenance such as: pruning, blocking social paths, picking up trash, blazing, etc.

Resource Management & Visitor Protection- 25% of work duties

4. Staffs Cadillac Mountain summit during midday and one sunset per week, including times of inclement weather, to perform duties 1-3 with an added component of traffic monitoring.
5. May conduct or distribute surveys for visitor use monitoring and research projects.
6. May be called upon to provide first aid and assist with ANP search and rescue operations.

Administration- 10% of work duties

7. Records daily patrol log of work activities and observations.
8. Assists coordinator with the formal Summit Steward presentation and report. Writes an end-of season evaluation of work experience with FOA and ANP.
9. Assists with ANP and FOA special events: parades, annual meeting, benefit, star party, etc.
10. Performs other duties as assigned.
